The Committee on Grounds and Buildings at a special meeting last night considered two propositions of public interest, with relation to the old Cavalry Armory on Seventh Street. The matter came up on a petition from the Howitzers to be allowed to convert the building at their own expense into a bath zers to be allowed to convert the building at their own expense into a bath house and gymnasium for the soldiers, and Capitaln W. M. Myers spoke for the proposition, which was finally granted. The school board was present, however, and desired the use of the building as an adjunct to the High School for the purpose of teaching manual training to boys. Major J. H. Capers, Dr. M. D. Hoge and Mr. Charles Hutzler represented the board, but the committee granted the petition of the Howitzers, and expressed a willingness to vote for a recommendation to the Council at an early date in favor of a new, up-to-date High School building.

SENTENCE MITIGATED.

But President Refuses to Reopen Case of Paymaster Biscoe.

Case of Paymaster Biscoe.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 30,—The President to-day disposed of a long pending and troublesome court-martial by refusing to open the case of Paymaster Harry E. Biscoe. U. S. N. who had applied to Secretary of the Navy to reopen it on the ground that Admiral Evans, who ordered the court in his case and reviewed the moceculings and sentence, which was that the paymaster should lose fifteen numbers, was personally prejudiced, as revealed in another court-martial case, that of Paymaster Nicholson. The fidge advocate-general recommended that the appeal be dismissed, but that the sentence mitigated. The Secretary of the Navy reported to the President that Paymaster Biscoe's reputation was of the best and that there was no suspicion of intentional wrongdoing on his part, and for these reasons the President mitigated the ponalty of the original court-martial to a simple reprimand for neglect of duty. The reprimand accordingly has been administered.

BROWN'S HISTORY OFF.

State Board Eliminates it From the Eligible List.

At the recent meeting of the State Board of Education, "Brown's History of Our English Grandfathers" was stricken from that list of ellighte books, because it was found to contain some objectionable statements. One of them was the reference to the Confederate gunboats as "pirate ships."

The book was, it is understood, ellimited by a magning seat by the beard.

The book was, it is understood, climi-nated by a unanimous vote by the board.

Patteson Alternate.

Hon. Charles V. Meredith, 'Richmond's delegate to the Rt. Louis convention, has named Hon. S. S. P. Patteson, of this city, his alternate, and while Mr. Meredith will attend the body and perform all the necessary function of his position, Mr. Patteson will attend as a speciator and will leave with the Virginia party on Saturday.

There are about twelve thousand homes in Richmond. Suppose you wanted to tell some one in each of those homes that you were selling a certain brand of coffee at a certain price or that your shoes or hats were the best or cheapest, what would it cost you to do it, without the aid of a newspaper,

Twelve thousand cheap hand-bills would cost you, say $5, cheap envelopes, $6; postage, $12; folding and directing with cheap labor, $6. total $29. A Tee-Dee Want Ad. would do the same work for 25c., besides reaching thousands and thousands of people who live outside of Rich mond. In addition to that, a hand-bill or circular or if opened would be thrown carelessly aside.
